

Learn and Get Involved

Come learn about species of concern monitoring programs at Masonboro Island – marsh birds, American oystercatchers, sea turtles, and diamondback terrapins. Find out how you can help.

Information & Training Sessions

SESSION 1

Sea Turtles &
Diamondback Terrapins

Speakers:

April Alford, Researcher & Hope Sutton,
Stewardship Coordinator

Topics:

Natural history and ecology of these protected reptiles. Monitoring and protection efforts at the Masonboro Island Reserve. How you can get involved with these efforts.

Thursday April 12
6-7:30 pm

SESSION 2

Birds of the Reserve

Speakers:

Hope Sutton, Stewardship Coordinator
Bird Researcher TBD

Topics:

Natural history and ecology of marsh and shore birds. Monitoring efforts at the Masonboro Island Reserve. The SEANET volunteer monitoring program. How you can get involved.

Thursday March 29
6-7:30 pm

UNCW Center for Marine Science • 5600 Marvin Moss Lane
Wilmington 28409 • 962-2998 • www.nccoastalreserve.net